Keith Lelux, Chief Operating Officer of American Auto Auction Group, has announced the appointment of industry veteran Robert Sullivan to the position of General Manager at Mid-South Auction in Jackson, Mississippi.

“We are extremely pleased to have an executive of Bob Sullivan’s background and expertise join our growing company,” said Lelux. “Bob’s understanding of the market, and his years of experience in the auto auction industry, make him uniquely qualified to lead our management team at Mid-South Auto Auction.”

“I am excited to be a part of the American Auto Auction Group,” stated Sullivan. “I am especially pleased to be at Mid-South, and to have the opportunity to again work with such accounts as General Motors, Ally Bank, Hyundai and KIA Motor Finance”.

Mid-South Auction’s best-in-class facility is located in Jackson, Mississippi, just one mile from Jackson-Evers International Airport. Mid-South conducts Dealer Sales every Tuesday at 9:00 AM, and Government Vehicle Sales on the first Thursday of each month.
