MarkOne Financial Recognizes Charleston Auto Auction as the 2011 National Auction Of The Year

February 10, 2012

CHARLESTON, South Carolina – On Friday, February 10th, MarkOne Financial named Charleston Auto Auction the 2011 National Auction of the Year, This is the third consecutive year they have received this designation. Charleston Auto Auction was one of over 20 Auctions that were evaluated for this recognition. Benchmarking criteria includes timeliness of pickup and auction administration processes, but weighing more heavily than any other area is overall retention. Keeping costs at a minimum, while maximizing gross sale price, is paramount toward overall auction performance.

“Charleston Auto Auction has consistently out-performed our expectations with regards to service and overall success. They are consistently the best performing auction in our network and have demonstrated integrity in reconditioning recommendations as well as sale day administration” stated Remarketing Manager, Jason Ghioto.

Charleston Auto Auction is a member of the American Auto Auction Group which is based in Charleston, South Carolina.

MarkOne Financial is an indirect lender based in Jacksonville, Florida and originates with a network of Franchised and Independent Dealers through its field sales team. MarkOne and sister company Centrus Auto Finance now originate in Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Ohio, Texas, Colorado, New Mexico and Oklahoma. MarkOne is a division of MarkOne Holdings.
