

Florence Alperin, Human Resources Director of AAAG

Florence Alperin is the Human Resources Director for the Company. She joined American Auto Auction Group at its inception. Florence comes to the group with over 25 years of Office and Human Resources Management experience. She has a wealth of experience in recruitment and development, job descriptions, handbooks, policies and procedures, training programs, accounting and safety management. Florence has been involved in Human Resources in a variety of industries to include wholesale, manufacturing and medical.

Florence was born and raised in the suburbs of Washington DC where she raised her two sons and attended school. She comes to Charleston from Tampa, Florida where she was responsible for all recruitment, training and human resources management for multiple locations of a Florida based soft drink manufacturer.