FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rea Brothers' Mid-South Auto Auction To Host GM & GMAC Sales

August 30, 2010

CHARLESTON, South Carolina –Rea Brothers' Mid-South Auction confirmed it has been selected to hold sales for General Motors and GMAC and will conduct the first of these on Sept. 14.

That news was confirmed recently by Keith Lelux, who is the chief operating officer of the American Auto Auction Group that runs both Rea Brothers' and Charleston Auto Auction.

"We are honored and excited to be able to work with the General Motors and GMAC remarketing programs," noted John Rea, who is the general manager of Rea Brothers'.

"Since 1968, General Motors has maintained a network of automobile auctions, and we are now pleased to be a part of this proud history," he continued.
